Big Supply of Milam Cotton Expected By Gins Next Week

Cotton from Milam County is Weems said it would be about the just now started to be picked in earnest and a few bales have already reached the cotton gins in this immediate vicinity.

P. W. Daves, of the Cameron Compress Company, reported that 39 bales have been received by them to date, with a sizeable amount of cotton expected to be brought in the later part of next week.

Local cotton buyers, J. E. Flinn and C. E. Triggs, reported that so far they have bought only a few bales, adding that probably most of the cotton would be left in government storage, since that price is higher right now than on the open market. They quoted the government price to be 33.41 on middling 15-16 staple cotton with the open market price set at 32.75. They added that a new government bulletin on prices is expected in this coming Monday.

Triggs said that so far the farmers are just picking in various spots throughout the county, but over-all production is expected to begin next week and continue strong for at least a two week period.

The Farmers Gin seems to have done the biggest ginning business to date, with unconfirmed report that 20 bales have already gone through their gin.

Robert Weems, owner and manager of the Weems gin, said that they have ginned five bales so far, with a big influx expected next week. He added that although the cotton going through thus far is slightly green it has processed out at 15-16 middling cotton and seems to have a much better staple than last year.

Weems said that so far cotton seed is going at $50 per ton, being judged on oil content.

When asked about the burr and lint situation which existed in the parts of town located near gins, Weems stated that conditions would be much the same as last year, except for one major change. This year the burrs will be blown out with the pink boll-worm killed and will not be wetted down as in the past, but left for the farmers to carry off, if they want to, to enrich their soil. In reference to the lint, however, same. All of the gins have dust collectors but some lint and dirt cannot be caught and will necessarily float through the city.

At the Matyastik Gin it was reported that they have been getting "a few bales" but are expecting several bales through next week. It was confirmed by the year is much better than last year, Gin owner that the staple this being longer and tougher than in the past.

At the Planters Gin in Maysfield, recently purchased by Perry Holder, it was reported that their gin will be open for business this coming Monday.

Due to the installation of new equipment the gin has not yet been ready for business, Holder stated, and they have been losing some cotton to the Brazos valley. Roy Newton is ginner at the Planters Gin.

Registration of First Eight Grades Set August 15 - 16

Registration for the first eight grades in the Ben Milam and Ada Henderson schools has been set for Monday and Tuesday, August 15 and 16 from 8 a.m. until 10 a.m. by principal Wiley Loughmiller.

He urged all the students planning to attend school here this year to register at this time to expedite the actual beginning of classes. There are several reasons for registering early, including the administrations need to know about supplies and equipment and the allotting of the correct number of small pox vaccination of teachers for each class.

Loughmiller further warned parents of students to enter the first grade this year to be sure their children's birth certificate and certificate of small pox vaccination is on hand prior to the beginning of school, since no child can be admitted without these papers.

He said that out of all the pupils registering for the first grade to date, 31 would not be eligible to enter school at this time because of the insufficient papers.

Shorts Versus Wedding Gowns; Wedding Expenses At New Low

Two young couples brought a new flair to the age old tradition of marriage last Tuesday night.

Judge Rice reported that he was called away from washing his car, by Mr. Richter at the city hall, to officiate at the double ceremony of two young girls dressed in black shorts and red shirts and their soldier figures. Judge Rice was unable to identify the couples, but he was able to report that the license was from Bell County and the mailing address was somewhere in Louisiana.

The manner of attire was not the only unusual circumstance. When Judge Rice arrived at the Court House to perform the ceremony, he ignored the group in the courthouse yard centered by two couples in shorts and uniforms and went across to chat with a friend until the couples arrived.

While the judge was talking to his friend, the couples got back into their car and drove back to the city hall seeking the judge and had to be escorted back to the court house by the city police.

Finally, Judge Rice's attention was directed toward the patrol car which had just pulled up in front of the courthouse and disgorged the two couples and the nightwatchman, whom they had called in to help them find the Judge.

Judge Rice said the girls favored strongly but couldn't tell positively whether or not they were sisters. He said all four were well mannered even though rather unconventionally attired. When asked how short the shorts were, Judge Rice said, "Well, they had a hem on them."

The soil in Milam County is generally prairie, waxy black with clay foundation.

In a concentrated attempt to decide on the proposal the 22 committee men and woman visited the buildings to get an actual birds-eye view of the condition of the present structures.

During the tour, conducted by C. L. Sadberry, principal of that school and Whitesides, janitor, the committee, as individuals, inspected every building on the campus. Hilliard Thomas, who was unanimously named chairman of the group, stated that they found the main building to be very presentable inside, but so poor structurally that engineers have warned that any money spent in repair would be wasted.

Harvesting of Milo Maize Reaches All Time High

Milo Maize is the big word in Milam County farmers' vocabularies this week, with the local harvesting of the crop reaching an all time high.

One local dealer, Bassel Wilson reported that he alone shipped out 4,234,538 pounds of the grain during the past week and some 10 million pounds, or 500,000 tons have been put in storage in the house thus far.

Wilson stated that he has sold grain to truckers coming from East Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, and Alabama, who told him the maize is being sold in those areas to chicken farmers for their fryers and broilers.

He also reported that corn from this area also has a higher market price than from any other locality in Central Texas, with prices reaching $1.10 per bushel, some 10 to 20 cents higher than in other places. Wilson is using the old Batte Cotton Warehouse for storage space to accommodate the farmers.

At the bonded Southern Grain Warehouse a company spokesman related that the building is already filled to about three-fifths capacity, and, if the weather, remains dry, expects the warehouse to be full by the end of next week.

He said that during the first part of the week loads of grain stacked up at the warehouse, with moisture content running 11, 11½ and 12 percent, well below the 13 per cent maximum required. During the latter part of the week however, he added, incoming grain shipments have been low due to scattered showers throughout the areas and humidity in the area.

It was also confirmed that new unloading equipment has been installed and arrangements made to continue the unloading of trucks each day until every trucker is accommodated.

Commissioners Charter in Readiness For Printing; Mailing To Voters

Charter commission members put the finishing touches on the new Cameron City Charter this week, and sent the completed document to the press for final printing and circulation to the voters in the city limits.

Jack Prescott, local attorney and member of the commission, reported that the sum and substance of the charter remained the same as submitted by the commission with only minor changes of references and statutory laws made in his final coordination of the document.

E. L. Wied, chairman of the charter body, stated that 14 out of the elected 15 charter workers were present at their last meeting and the one absent gave his consent of the submitted report by proxy having read it prior to the meeting.

"We have gone over the charter thoroughly," Wied said, "and have tried to make it suit everyone. We feel that it is a good charter and will be of great value in conducting the city government. We feel that it will pass by vote of the people."

Following the printing and proofing of the charter the copies will be sent to all the qualified voters in the city, and then, after it has been in their hands for study for 30 days an election will be called.

Wied said that the commission will have at least one more meeting within the next few weeks to submit their final approval of the printed document.

Prescott outlined some of the major assets the charter will hold for the people of Cameron, adding definitely that there would be very little change in the present city government.

The Mayor and the council will still be elected officers, but the department heads will be appointed, in an effort to gain more efficient handling of the various offices. These department heads will be directly responsible to the

Dealers, Bankers Interested In Conservation

Central Texas District Supervisors met with implement dealers and bankers of the district last week to organize a dealer-district conservation program.

This program is an organized effort of soil conservation district supervisors and implement dealers plus other interested individuals or groups to work together to help get more soil and water conservation applied.

The Cameron area was represented by Bill Michalka, Hugh Smith, Ernest Burkes, and Wayne Mann all of Cameron.

The group was very enthusiastic about the organization. Officers were elected and tentative plans made to meet once each month, rotating the meeting places between Temple, Cameron and Rosebud.

Until now only five other districts in Texas have started a dealer district program, but several others are making plans to organize in 1955.

Farm equipment manufacturers, distributors, branch managers are interested in working with districts on this. District supervisors feel that such an organized effort will be a great help for a better conservation program.

One of the most startling revelations made at the Round-up, which is held to instigate more interest in local scouting and the recruitment of new scouts, was the fact that there are now only 158 active Scouts in the Texas District, and 734 potentials.

As a kick-off to get more boys into scouting during this round-up Carl Black and Charlie Smith issued "Ranch mortgages" to the various units present. The pack, troop or unit having the most "Mavericks" or Scouts ready to be "branded" at the conclusion of the round-up in December will be presented with an award.

Look! we've never made it easier for you to say "yes"

Our high allowances for trades are based on higher volume (Mercury sales are breaking all records). Our terms have never been easier (tailored to fit any budget). And remember—Mercury prices start below 13 models in the low-price field.* So why settle for a smaller, less powerful car when it's so easy to own this big 188-horsepower Mercury? Stop in and hear our offer today.

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested list or factory retail prices, using a Mercury Custom 2-door Sedan.

SEE WHAT YOU GET WHEN YOU MOVE UP TO MERCURY

- Exclusive styling. Mercury's beauty is fresh, distinctive—shared by no other car.
- A bigger car all over. For bigger than "low-price" cars—in length, width and wheelbase.
- Super power and torque. The lowest cost Mercury (the 188-horsepower Custom shown above) is the most powerful car at its price. And you get 198 horsepower in the Montclair series. This is usable power (torque)—and it's up as much as 30% in all speed ranges for brilliant new pickup and passing power.
- Extra luxury. Instead of ordinary upholstery, you get special fabrics, patterns and color combinations.
- Extra-value features at no extra cost. Dual exhausts on 8 out of 11 models, 4 barrel carburetors, new anti-fouling spark plugs, ball-joint front suspension—and many others.
- High future trade-in value. Mercury consistently leads its field for resale value.

Lions Program on 'Women Rule World' Gets Big Applause

In the absence of Don Humble, regular program chairman for the day, Reverend Jim McKeown read an article to the Lions Club members at their regular meeting Tuesday noon in the First Christian Church.

The humorous article, based on "Woman Rules The World", dwelt on the position of the American male in his family life. It told how the men of yesterday were the masters of their house-hold and today have dissolved to the point of being expected to do the dishes.

During the business meeting the Lions Carnival slated for September 2 and 3 was discussed with several committees appointed to take care of arrangements.

It was also announced that there will be a board of directors meeting Thursday night at 7:30 at the N. L. Caperton Lake to make more complete plans for the carnival. All members of the board were urged to be present.

Misses Kohl, Zoltz, Henderson Enjoying 'Sun, Surf, Study'

Among the 3709 students enrolled in the six-week summer session of the University of Hawaii are Cameron residents Jane B. Henderson of 410 W. Fourth St., Louise M. Kohl of Box 734, and Mildred Zoltz of 1101 W. Main St. They are part of the group of sixty Texans attending the "Sun, Surf, and Study" summer program at the University.

Members of the Howard Tour, the three young women are making their first visit to the Islands. Miss Henderson, an English major at the University of Texas, has selected courses in College Algebra, Painting and Drawing, and Dances of Hawaii for her summer study.

Miss Kohl and Miss Zoltz, who have R. N. certificates from Providence Hospital in Waco, are both taking Introductory Sociology.

Each year an increasing number of students from mainland United States, representing nearly every state of the Union, come to Hawaii to participate in the summer program of the University. These students find the University's summer session a unique way of combining travel and recreation with study and college credits. About one-fourth of the summer enrollment is from the Mainland, and fourteen foreign countries are also represented.

The Office of Student Personnel has planned a lively round of parties, entertainments, lectures, and tours to temples, museums, a sugar mill, pineapple canneries, and various points of interest. Sailboat parties, coffee breaks, receptions, dances, Hawaiian Night and the Intercultural Program will enable students to become acquainted with one another. Newcomers to the Islands will be introduced to the old Hawaiian sport of ti-leaf sliding.

The University of Hawaii, which is a fully accredited institution of higher learning, is not far from some of the Islands' finest beaches, making it possible for students to enjoy surf and sunshine after a morning of classes and study.

September State Draft Call Set For 536 Men

A state draft call for 536 men for September was announced on Thursday by Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director.

The quota, the state's share of a national call for 10,000 men, is 14 less than the August quota. The July call is identical with the August quota. Calls have ranged between 500 and 550 a month during most of 1955.

Local board quotas for the September induction into the Army will be mailed from state Selective Service headquarters during the first week in August.

There will be no physical-mental examinations of men for military service through the draft boards in September, except in isolated cases, General Wakefield said.

With the exception of volunteers and possible delinquents, the August induction call will be filled only with men who on September 1 are 21 years of age or older.

Vets Required to Make Down Payment With Aid Program

Veterans purchasing homes with the aid of GI loans will be required to make a down payment of at least two percent, and the maximum time for repayment of loans will be set at 25 years, the Veterans Administration announced.

Similarly moderate credit requirements are being placed in effect by the Federal Housing Administration for homes purchased with FHA insured mortgages.

Since April 23, 1953 the VA has had no mandatory down payment requirement, and the mortgage repayment period could run as high as 30 years.

Today's action, VA said, was taken after a thorough study of national economic conditions, especially those prevailing in the residential construction and mortgage financing fields. The new requirements are expected to help protect prospective GI loan applicants against increased prices of General Wakefield said.

He said such direction of induction of older age groups was under authority of the national director of selective service and such instructions were received with the state call.

homes, overextension of credit, and should tend to stabilize the mortgage market by eliminating the 30 year no down payment loan which currently is being traded at widening discount margins.

The new requirements are not retroactive. They are not applicable to purchase of homes for which VA has issued certificates of reasonable value prior to July 30 or in cases where requests for appraisals actually have been received in VA offices prior to July 30.

Also, the requirements will not apply to GI loans made solely for the replacement or reconstruction of residential property that has the replacement or reconstruction damaged by flood, fire, or other been destroyed or substantially similar catastrophes, nor to repair, alteration or improvement loans.

UP GOES CHRYSLER'S PRODUCTION MORE THAN 40% Here you see construction work proceeding on the new Chrysler production facilities which will add 667,000 square feet of floor space... including a 14-mile long continuous conveyor system, longest in the industry.

CHRYSLER'S giant expansion program brings you the greatest new car buying opportunity of the year!

Because of the unprecedented demand for its 1955 models, currently up to a new record high, Chrysler has had to undertake a Giant Plant Expansion Program. When in full production the new plant will provide a 40 per cent increase in Chrysler Windsor V-8 and New Yorker output.

Knowing that building operations would take several months, we have tried to provide enough 1955 Chrysler Windsor V-8's and New Yorkers to meet the demands of our customers through the season. This meant filling our entire year's supply right now in mid-season.

You Get Year's Widest Selection of Models and Color Combinations

Since we tried to anticipate your needs, we can show you a wide selection of color combinations and body styles, but our supply will never again be as great as it is right now! Indications are that there just will not be enough of all models and body styles to go around.

Your present car will never be worth more in trade

Remember that fact! Right now your present car is worth more in trade than it ever will be again.

And we can allow you more for it than anybody else in town. That's not just talk. There's a good reason for it.

We Need Used Cars

When these new cars are gone, we'll be hungrier than ever for used cars. That's right—as these wonderful new Chrysler buys move out we will be needing more and more late model used cars. That's a double reason for you to trade for a brand new Chrysler beauty right now. You have the year's finest selection of the popular 1955 Chryslers... and, we're in a real trading mood to get our used car stocks in shape.

"Light" Snack For Ducks

Coming back from Balesville the other night I noticed a powerful light at Whitey Fisher's Duck Farm. Seemed to be shining out over the water.

I stopped to ask Whitey what went on. He took me down to his pond and pointed out a 200-watt bulb—rigged up on a pole about three feet above the surface. The light was attracting thousands of insects for the ducks to eat.

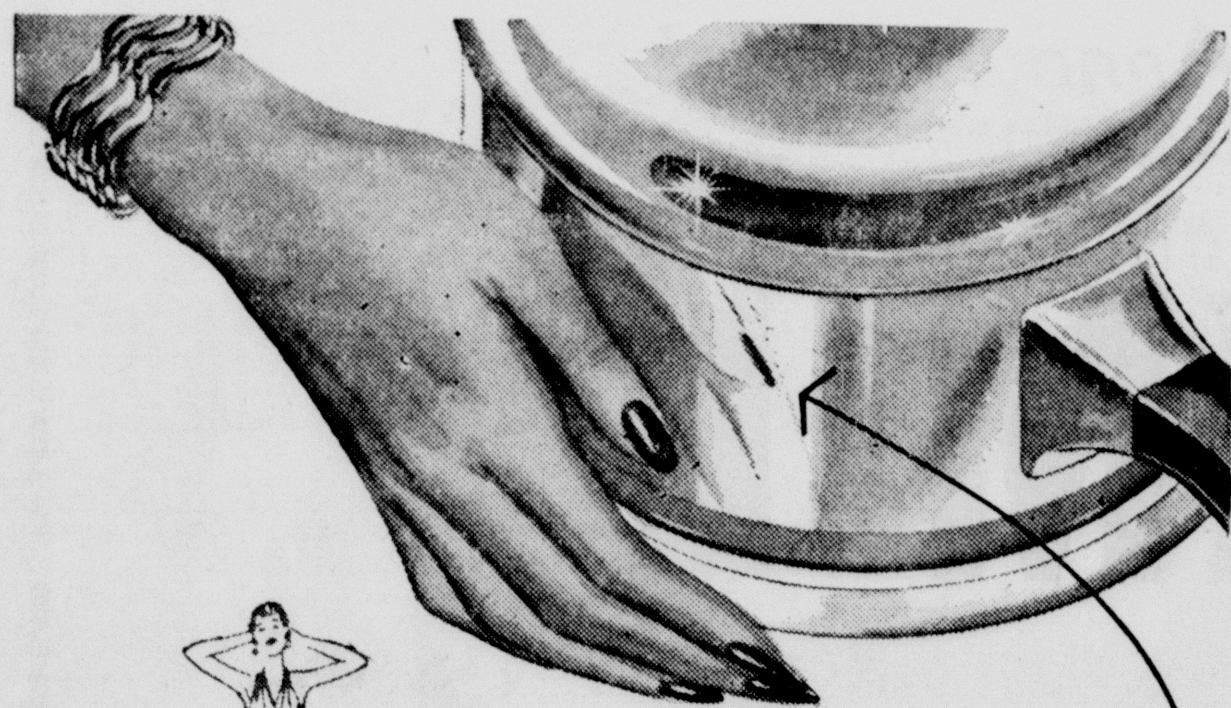

Seemed kind of odd to me—but Whitey was enthusiastic. "Best idea I ever heard of," he claims. "Keeps the feed bill down—and the bug population, too. Why do you suppose I never thought of it before?"

From where I sit, Whitey's the type who's always ready to pioneer a worth-while new trick. Me, I stick to old methods. Just a case of personal feeling, I guess... like the way you may prefer coffee with meals while I always prefer a traditional glass of beer. Not that I'd claim you're wrong—respect for the other man's opinion is my "guiding light."

City Dads Say That "Beer Cans" Are Hazard To Health Program

City facilities, from a health, safety and request viewpoint was the main topic up for discussion at the City Council meeting Tuesday evening.

At the out-set of the meeting, Gene Blake, Leo O'Neill and B.L. Archer, representing the home owners on their streets, appeared before the council to see if the paving, curbing and guttering project proposed for their section could not be expedited.

Archer pointed out that the $1.10 per foot estimated for that street held no provision for steel bars in the cement. The men stated that even if the project ran 15 cents more per foot they would insist upon the steel reinforcement.

Councilmen advised them that the matter would be taken under consideration and the legal department would check on whether or not liens could be issued against the property owners in that section to assure payment of the construction.

Archer disgustedly stated that this was exactly the same information they were given some two months ago, and the project, which they had hoped to see completed this summer, was apparently right back where it started from.

Blake quickly interrupted saying the citizens in that area would like to cooperate in any way they can, even to taking around the liens for signature.

Milton Schiller, councilman, motioned that a committee be appointed to find out all the necessary details. The motion passed and a committee composed of Robert Wernes, Roy Griffith and Clifford Thompson was appointed to make a report at the next meeting.

At the conclusion of this discussion Narvie Caperton, one of the partners in the new Milam County radio station now under construction told councilmen that in addition to the radio station two other businesses are considering building in that area and sewerage and water facilities would be needed. He proposed that the council lay only one line for each facility under the highway, large enough to accommodate the three businesses. He added that they would furnish everything else except the actual laying of the line under the highway. The motion was made and passed that the city go along with his request.

Before he adjourned from the meeting Mayor O. B. Horstmann asked for his permission to use some of his land to the rear of his property for land-fill purposes. Caperton quickly affirmed their suggestion.

It was then pointed out that Cameron citizens are using approximately a million and one-half gallons of water a day, bringing the water level at the reservoir to a low ebb every day. Mayor Horstmann suggested that a larger line be laid to the river. Clifford Thompson said that if any line of action in that direction is taken the city should think about a complete new system, filtration plant and all.

The possibility of a deep well, the need for estimates, other items of future water expansion which was broached by the last council last November, were discussed, with Thompson ending the matter saying that he would like to submit a complete report in the future.

Next the ordinance committee reported that an ordinance necessary for obtaining right-of-way funds for highway 36 had been written. The ordinance stated that the $10,000 to be borrowed on time warranty would be repaid at a rate of three and three-fourth per cent interest at $2,000 per annum to the First National Bank in Cameron.

Councilmen were then appointed to confer once more with property owners along that stretch of highway to find out what they wanted to be paid, and then, if no agreement could be reached, write each one a letter stating the amount the city felt that it could logically pay.

The Street Committee was next up for report, with Grady Stidham stating that two layers of oil had been added to the Simon-George hall street.

Action was then taken on the matter of water piling up on 18th Street following a rain. It was voted that the street will be raised to engineering specifications to put the water back where nature had channeled it, if the property owners agreed.

A completed map of the Matt Zarosky sub-division located just on the edge of the city limits was then submitted. The 26 lot division was approved by the council.

After the water report in which gallons of water were used last month, Roy Griffith pointed out that in comparison to 1900 water connections there are only 1,200 sewer connections. "This is too small a percentage," Griffith lamented.

Following some talk on the people who promised to tie into a sewerage line if it was installed and then backed out when the city kept it's end of the bargain, the talk was tabled.

Stidham then brought up the fact that all, or most, of the "Beer joints" in Cameron dump their empty beer cans on the city streets causing swarms of germs and flies. The motion was passed that City Marshall Joe Richter be advised to call on all the owners of these establishments warning them that if they failed to keep their premises and the streets around them clean a report against them would be filed with the Liquor Board.

Councilmen then discussed the wisest course to take in installing the lights at the colored park, for which funds were allocated earlier in the summer. When told that the Citizens Advisory Committee appointed by the School Board, had talked of the possibility of installing a complete athletic field in that vicinity the council decided to wait for Milton Schiller, a representative of both bodies, to confer with the other members of the CAC and find out their intentions and try to work with them before a definite decision on the lights is reached.

The only other matter brought to the attention of the council was the request by one of the down-town businessmen that a stop light be placed on the intersection at the First National Bank. The police committee was appointed to investigate and take care of the matter as they see fit.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER ENDORSES BIG INDUSTRIALIST'S IDEA OF TAKING OFF AND DOING NOTHING BUT LOAFING

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm at Marlow things he has found a man who thinks like he does, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

When a man has his own opinions confirmed, it makes him feel good.

I read in a newspaper last night about a big industrialist who has turned his resort home over to a bunch of big brains for two weeks of meditation and right now they are up at his place, talking things easy and thinking.

The newspapers seemed to think this was unusual and news worthy, but I'd like to point out it's the system I've been using for years out here on my Johnson grass farm.

As I understand the deal, this industrialist invites a bunch of scientists, business men, professors, etc. to come out to his place and just loaf. He doesn't assign them anything to think about, just lets it develop. His contention is that if you turn some good minds loose and let them pursue their own course with all the leisure they want, something is bound to result.

I believe he is absolutely right, and I have clipped the article out of the paper and have pasted it on the wall, to explain my absence during plowing weather to my wife.

However, there is one flaw in his system. He invites the brains to come out and think for a couple of weeks. It's not long enough.

It takes a lifetime. Thinking is not something a man can decide he will do between 10 and 10:30 each morning for two weeks in the summer, it's something he has to stay with pretty close, day and night, week after week, right through one crop season and in to another. A man who lets his work get in the way of his thinking, ain't thinking hard enough.

But this industrialist has the right idea, he doesn't expect anything definite and positive to come from the thinking session. That's the way it ought to be. Lots of times I've spent the whole day thinking and when my wife asks, well, what came of it, what conclusions have you arrived at, I have no answer. There are some thoughts so profound they can't be expressed, and they're the safest kind to deal in.

Yours faithfully,

Texas' Cotton Crop Estimate Tops Last Year

Texas' 1955 cotton crop was estimated Monday at 3,900,000 bales, slightly under 1954's crop of 3,923,000 bales but better than the 10 year average of 3,239,000.

The U.D.A.'s first forecast of 1955 cotton production was based on Aug. 1 conditions. The figure for the nation was 12,728,000 bales.

The department said lack of moisture during the spring and summer sharply reduced the dry land crop in the Texas coastal bend in the southern blacklands and South Central area.

In all other Texas areas prospects were described as very good. The West Texas crop is in especially good shape.

The forecast was that Texas production this year will average 278 pounds per acre. The crop was judged only 79 per cent of normal.

6-7 Hundred Tons Grain For Storage Monday This Week

Southern Grain Warehouse spokesman reported a record day for grain coming in for storage Monday, with some six to seven hundred tons brought in by truck, trailer, pick-up, and some even by automobile during the morning hours.

This almost fills the warehouse to capacity, according to official reports, and it is expected that Tuesday will be the last day grain will be accepted for storage.

According to an unconfirmed report the open market on maize is now $1.40, with the government price still $1.97, or $1.75 net to the farmer after paying a 21 cent storage charge.

Authorities explained that, even though on loan, the grain would still belong to the individual farmer placing it in storage until the maturity date of the loan, on March 31, 1956.

Yoemen Open Grid Practice August 22; First Game In Waco Sept. 9

Twelve returning lettermen will form the nucleus of the 1955 Yoe men football squad when the grid practices begin August 22 at the Yoe High School athletic field.

Coaches Leo Jackson and Dick Young will strongly bank on the services of 175-pound Paul Hoelscher, a junior guard who was voted as a member of the 1954 all-district team.

Benny Massengale, senior end, will also throw his 170-pound experience in the line. Benny was chosen as a member of the second all-district squad.

Tom Collins, 150-pound senior center, will be back for his third letter from Yoe High School. Collins was also a member of the second all-district team.

Buddy Thompson, 145-pound senior fullback will help carry the Maroon and Grey colors for Yoe High along with Clifford Angell, 140 pound scatback, John Duncan, 160-pound senior back and Burk Barr, 160-pound senior end.

An experienced line will also take on to the gridiron come September 9 when the Yoemen meet the Class AAA University High at Waco.

Clyde Wallace, 205-pound senior tackle; Monroe Bayer, 190-pound, 160-pound junior tackle; Laddie Dohnalik, 155-pound senior guard, and Steve Polzer, 150-pound senior guard will all be the main stays in Coach Young's line.

Many outstanding new comers will fill in the holes vacated by graduating seniors and give the Yoemen a good chance to defend their portion of the 1954 District 21-AA championship.

This year the winner of this district will idly sit by through bi-district play-offs and automatically advance to the regional play-offs. Since a combination earlier by two AA districts, calls AA was left with an uneven number of districts, and the local district was drawn to pass the bi-district game.

Area coaches and sports writers have indicated, if returning lettermen is the criterion for selecting a champion, Georgetown or Belton will probably make the regional playoffs. But all district 21-AA teams have always been mentioned as a possible contender for the title and the competition has been keen with the district crown holder determined at the final game.

It would not be overly surprising if two or more teams wound up in a tie for the championship because that situation has existed in four of the past six seasons. Rosebud and Cameron tied in 1949, in 1952 it was Belton and Rosebud, in 1953 Cameron entered the picture again and tied three-ways with Belton and Rosebud and in 1954 Cameron and Georgetown tied for the title. Cameron Yoemen held the 1951 title to themselves and advanced to regional while in 1950 Georgetown held the title. Cameron has had the title, or a part of it, six times out of hte past eight years.

Marshall Terry and Mrs. Terry have returned from Fort Worth and Houston where they spent their vacation. Mr. Terry polices the parking meters.

Bovine Semen Artificial Insemination Coming To Milam County Soon

With the use of frozen bovine semen Milam County will take a progressive step toward raising a higher breed of cattle in the future, James E. Luckey of Rockdale announced.

He reported that the artificial insemination breeding program in the cattle field will begin in the county in the very near future.

Cattlemen have pointed out the many advantages of using the frozen semen in this industry. Some of the greater advantages include:

- (1) The selected mating of individuals to develop a more efficient cow;
- (2) being able to breed to a certain sire after he is deceased which can be for a year or more;
- (3) freezing almost eliminates the transmission of disease factor from bull to cow (for instance Brucella organism is killed, Vibris fetus is not);
- (4) Thus the use of antibiotics is deemed necessary which dose kill Vibris fetus; and
- (4) a mild enforcement of selection of higher conception rate bulls by the bull studs, since high quality semen does freeze better.

The freezing of bovine semen originated in England within the last six years. It has been used quite successfully in that country. Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio State colleges have contributed most of the work done in the United States. Most American work on the freezing of bovine semen has been a modification of the English procedure.

This method of raising a better breed of cattle and improving known strains has been used successfully in several parts of the United States.

Advisory Committee In Panel Discussion on School Problems

A panel of 20 thoughtful members of the Citizens Advisory member and local school board met Friday evening to discuss the problems de-segregation would cause in Cameron.

The men, showing a vital interest and a certain amount of research in their thinking, approached the problem from every angle. First they discussed the "when" aspect and arrived at the conclusion of certainly not before 1956.

Then Interscholastic League was drawn into the picture, with W. T. Hanes informing them that there has been no penalty against de-segregated schools for some time. One of more serious blocks de-segregation has run up against was pointed out by one of the Texas school practices integration they may jeopardize their Gilmer - Aikens financial standing.

This budget has been set up for two schools, white and colored, and if the two are combined the schools have no assurance they will receive the funds from the State, since no law has been written into the State Department of Education's rules to that effect.

Again and again, when minor solutions seemed near the surface Dr. Clifford Swift, who directed the meeting, reminded the committee that they had been appointed to study the matter, not necessary in his opinion the school board and the committee should follow the advice of Governor Allen Shivers, and be "very deliberate and slow" in choosing any course of action.

Swift added that this committee had been brought together for one main purpose, to be a position to make a conclusive decision when and if the occasion arise and to determine the exact white and colored needs in the schools.

From this viewpoint the talk centered around the O. J. Thomas School W. T. Hanes, superintendent of the local schools, in the manner of all men interested first and foremost in education asked the committee to approach the problem just as though integration had never been thought of. After clearing the board of all other matters at least momentarily, Hanes pointed out that new facilities are badly needed on the O. J. Thomas campus. The old building is in such a state, he said, that when repairs are made it is a waste of money. Architects have confirmed the fact that making repairs to the building are useless, that a new building is needed.

All of those present were in accord with the new facility program and it was decided that the committee and board, as a group will visit the building next week to actually see the condition of the school.

One hundred thousand dollars was the sum mentioned that would be adequate for a new 12 room building and cafeteria, with no raise in school taxes.

This amount would also cover the equipment for the new building.

Another factor brought up was the need for an athletic field at the colored school and transportation of the athletes.

Although no decisions were reached the committee arrived at its first milestone Friday, working from a viewpoint of education and the need of students first, and integration second.

Hunting Licenses In Hands of Dealers By Last of August

Hunting and fishing licenses for the new state fiscal year beginning September 1 will be in the hands of dealers by the last week of this month, according to the Chief License Clerk of the Game and Fish Commission in Austin.

The licenses which will be good for twelve months dating from September 1 will be distributed through approximately one thousand seven hundred licenses deputies, mainly sporting goods stores and hardware merchants, plus county clerks and game wardens.

The Chief License Clerk said approximately four hundred ten thousand fishing licenses and approximately three hundred eighty thousand hunting licenses were sold last year. Individual resident fishing licenses cost $1.65 and individual resident hunting licenses cost $2.15.

Most problems encountered in storing grain can be traced back to moisture. Excessive moisture in the grain when it goes into storage leads to insect, heat and mold damage.

Former Cabinet Member To Receive State Fair Award

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston, who is possibly Texas' "most honored" native daughter, will receive the first Woman of the Year award of the State Fair of Texas, it has been announced by State Fair President R. L. Thornton.

Mrs. Hobby was selected as the nation's outstanding woman of 1955 by a committee representing

Woman of the Year

15 large Texas women's organizations.

The annual award is being inaugurated at the 1955 State Fair in recognition of the contributions of women to the growth of America's largest annual exposition, Thornton said.

"The award is not limited to active Texans," Mr. Thornton explained, "but in the case of Mrs. Hobby, who was born in Killen, it makes us all very proud that a Texas woman should be the stand-out nominee for this first annual award."

The award will be presented in State Fair Auditorium Oct. 19, Women's Day at the Fair. Mrs. Hobby will be the principal speaker at the ceremonies, which will be open to the public.

Before being called to Washington in January 1953, as Federal Security Administrator, Mrs. Hobby was editor and publisher of the Houston Post. She now become president of the Houston Post Publishing Company, succeeding her husband, ex-Governor William P. Hobby, who will be chairman of the board.

President Eisenhower has praised her for devoting her talents in the cabinet to benefit the country "most effectively" and for her "calm competence in the face of every kind of difficulty." Senator Price Daniel declared that the nation "owes a debt of gratitude to Mrs. Hobby for the service she has rendered both in war and peace," and House Speaker Sam Rayburn lauded her as a "very capable, fine lady."

News About Your Social Security

Thousands of self-employed professional people do not know that they and their families will benefit from the Social Security Act. Since the beginning of 1955 this law extended protection to self-employed accountants, architects, funeral directors, and professional engineers.

This means that any group without social security account numbers should obtain one as soon as possible. Net earnings of as much as $400 and up to $4200 in a year must be reported in conjunction with filing Federal Income Tax Returns every year after 1954.

It is important to realize that in addition to providing for retirement at age 65, the old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the social security law give protection to the families of insured professionals who die at any age.

Applications for social security account cards and booklet 35, "Your Social Security" may be obtained from your Austin social security district office.

Cameron Among Cities To Present Their "Story"

Eleven Central Texas cities will present their "story" to the thousands of visitors at the Heart O' Texas Fair in Waco, October 1-7.

Industrial, commercial, agricultural, scenic, cultural and other advantages will be set forth in an array of booths which will line both sides of the concourse on the east side of the Coliseum.

"Your Town Hall", as the department is known, will consist of displays by Rockdale, Groesbeck, Cameron, Meridian, Franklin, Hubbard, Hamilton, Clifton, Gatesville, Hillsboro, and Mexia.

The space is provided without charge by the fair and the nature of the exhibit is left to the decision of the Chamber of Commerce in each city. Representatives of Clifton, Groesbeck, Mexia, and Cameron already have visited the Coliseum in order to see the location assigned their cities and to confer with Executive Vice President Othel M. Neely of the fair.

James Mann New Member of County FHA Committee

James A. Mann of Route 2, Buckholts, Texas is the new member of the County Committee for the Farmer Home Administration. His appointment became effective July 1, 1955, according to County Commissioner Ed O. Pangel.

Mann succeeds Ed O. Pangel whose term on the 3-member committee expired this year.

Mann has been an active cotton grain and livestock farmer in the Yarrrellton Community for many years. He has devoted his entire adult life to farming in Milam County and has been very active in Church, Civic and Agricultural activities of his community.

The other two members of the committee are Frank J. Jahn, Chairman, of Route 1, Burlington, and A. Ralph Avrett of Route 2, Thorndale.

There is a Farmer's Home Administration county committee in every agricultural county in the country. A Committee determines the eligibility of applicants and helps the county supervisor adapt the agency's loan policies and services to local conditions. Each member is named on a three year term, and the appointment expires each year. A member completing a 3-year term cannot succeed himself. At least two of the members must be farmers.

The Farmers Home Administration makes loans for farmers to buy, improve, enlarge, or operate efficient family-type farms. It also lends money to farmers or their nonprofit associations to establish and carry on approved soil and water conservation practices. Purposes include establishing and improving permanent pastures, terracing, soil erosion practices, and many other conservation measures, as well as irrigation and armstead water improvements. Most of the soil and water conservation loans and loans to buy, improve, or enlarge farms are made from funds advanced by private lenders and insured by the agency.

The agency makes emergency loans, but only in areas designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as being in need of emergency loans due to some calamity.

Before the agency can make any loan, the applicant must have the approval of the county committee. In the case of a farm ownership loan, the farm to be purchased, enlarged or improved must also be approved by the committee, Wright, County Supervisor explained.
